

- FORK-LIFT TRUCK DRIVERS WANTED -

At Waterman Onions in Emmeloord, everything we do revolves around onions. We purchase onions from domestic and international growers, sort and package them, and deliver them to customers around the world.

Every day we process huge quantities of onions, which are sorted, packaged and prepared for delivery to our customers. And we need your help.

As a fork-lift truck driver, you will be responsible for getting the right onions to the right place, ready to be transported. For example, they may need to be taken to the sorting or packing line after arrival, or prepared for delivery. It is essential that you are able to work accurately and safely.

Do you have:

- safety as your highest priority,
- experience with fork-lift trucks and/or your fork-lift truck certificate,
- the creativity and insight to think up solutions and tackle challenges,
- good command of Dutch and/or English,
- and a healthy attitude to work?

And are you:

- sharp and alert,
- a team player,
- and available part-time or full-time?*

In that case, you're the new FORK-LIFT TRUCK DRIVER we're looking for, so come and join the Waterman team!

Working at Waterman Onions means:

- a part-time or full-time job with an experienced and growing business
- + lots of independence and room to make your own contribution and put forward ideas
- + teamwork
- + the opportunity for personal development
- + a varied job offering plenty of challenges and, above all, great results
- + friendly colleagues and a good working atmosphere.

So what are you waiting for? Apply now and soon you could be helping to ensure that the forklift trucks at Waterman Onions run smoothly. To apply for this vacancy, please contact Arjan Dunnewind (arjan@waterman-onions.nl).

* We also offer opportunities to school pupils and students who are only available in the evenings Bij Waterman Onions in Emmeloord draait alles om uien. Wij kopen
